Policy Statement:

It is the continuing policy of Dougherty County, Georgia to afford equal employment opportunity to qualified individuals regardless of their race, creed, disability, sex, national origin, or age and to conform to applicable laws and regulations. Equal opportunity encompasses all aspects of employment practices to include, but not limited to, recruiting, hiring, training, compensation, benefits, promotions, transfers, layoffs, recall from layoffs, and discipline. Additionally, it is the policy of this agency to provide its members a viable means for communicating and resolving grievances and complaints regarding unlawful discriminatory employment practices.

Step 4b: Narrative Underutilization Analysis

The County's Human Resources Department, reviewed the Community Labor Statistics and noted the following underutilization over two or more standard deviations:

Professionals: Underutilization of white females by 12% and black females by 13%.

Technicians: Underutilization of white females by 3% and black females by 26%.

Protective Services (Sworn): Underutilization of Hispanic males by 4% and black males by 9%.

Protective Services (Non-Sworn): Underutilization of black males by 11% and white females by 13%.

Administrative Support: Underutilization of white males by 8% and black males by 7%.

Service Maintenance: Underutilization of white females by 10% and black females by 22%.

Community labor statistics show that Hispanic, Asian/Pacific Islander and American Indian/Alaskan Native populations are very low in Dougherty County. Therefore, the largest areas of underutilization identified were White males and females and African American/Black males and females. However, in comparison to the last submitted EEO Short Form, the County has been able to show significant improvements in the regards to the employment of black male and female Officials/Administrators, Professionals and Technicians. Therefore, the majority of the plan will focus on the largest areas of underutilization and will continue to research methods of communicating job opportunities to all race and ethnic groups.

Step 5 & 6: Objectives and Steps
